Unfinished business: None

Committee reports: None

Public comments: Glen Meyer had three suggestions in the suggestion box being that of to see about putting Led light bulbs in help with lighting, the other suggestion was if the people smoking in the Summer & Spring could go away from the building because the smoke drifts into offices and there are employees who have respiratory issues. Lastly it was suggested to have some sort of Employee Christmas lunch for each department generalized, Courthouse to have theirs LEC center and the Roads department to have theirs when it works for them. It is too hard to get everyone all together at one time. Suggestion was for the Board to maybe provide the main entree from their own funds and the rest of lunch would be provided by staff.

Motioned by Mayberry second by Trimble to approve a $50.00 balance in the County Clerk's fee account as request by the Auditor. Roll call aye: Mayberry, English, Trimble, Price, French, Harlan, Meyer. Motion carried.

Emergency manager Tom Perez reported that the last couple of weeks were short weeks with Holiday and a couple days of personal time off. Tom said that most of his time was working on the installment of new lines into the Courtroom. This week he has a LEPC meeting Thursday in Walthill.

Mat Frazey reported on that the roads staff has been busy with hauling gravel and rock, he feels that they have a pretty good stock pile built up. They worked in the shop one whole day getting V plows and snowblowers ready and changed oil in snowblower. All the wings are on the motor graders ready for winter. Mat reported that the sale of surplus properties was on November 29th and all items allowed were sold bringing in $9,505.50. They continue to work on culverts, cleaning up brush, and trees from ditches.

Motioned by Trimble second by Price for application to be made for additional CBMP funds. With Hwy Superintendent and Roads Forman to make the decision on what structures to apply for. Roll call aye: Mayberry, English, Trimble, Price, French, Harlan, Meyer. Motion carried.

Tamara Parker Realty Director for the Omaha Tribe of Nebraska introduced her self to the board and spoke about some of her goals she would like to work with the county going froward. One of her top goals is to get the 911 addresses resolved. Tom Perez told Tamara he will sit down and work on this with her and anything else she may need assistance with. All the 911 work has been done by County to implement the 911 addressing. Clerk Bessmer mentioned that she
